SPLendid HIRE

RUSTIC THEMED CEILIDH AT KINROSS HOUSE

KINROSS HOUSE

Rustic Themed Ceilidh

Along with Califano Productions, Splendid Hire were excited to be a big part of the wedding for our American clients back in March 2024. The weekend was focussed in an incredible glass marquee by the English Marquee Company. To kick the weekend off, the couple were keen to treat their guests to a relaxed ceilidh.

The most important element was to keep it simple and to create a very different look that would be taking place the following day for the wedding itself. Not only did this include the look of the setup, but also the uniform of the staff and how the food was served. Think usherette trays, streetfood style containers for the food and so on.

To achieve this Scottish look we focused on using our tartan blankets and antler candleabra, . All products used are featured below.
